The Elections.

The election in Ohio is progressing favorably.

Many democrats in Vallandigham's own city, Dayton, are voting for Brough.

Some of the towns on the Reserve are going almost en masse for the Union candidates.

In Pennsylvania, we trust, the good cause is being equally well sustained.

County Supervisor.

The county convention to-day nominated R. T. Powell, of Fulton, for county supervisor.

Mr. Powell is one of the best men in the county, abundantly qualified, and will give general satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.

Third Assembly District.

The republicans of this steadfast district have put Guy Wheeler, of the town of La Prairie, in nomination for the assembly, and in doing so, have done well.

Mr. Wheeler is one of the active, live men of the day, well known and highly respected throughout the district, and the loyal men of the district can anchor to him with perfect assurance that their confidence will not be misplaced.

Rise of Gold.

Gold has taken an extraordinary rise, selling at 56, but receding to 54.

The movement of Lee, and the danger from the political crisis at the elections transpiring, must be the cause.

Gen. Sherman's Advance.

The Chicago Journal, of yesterday, says: We have later advice from the advance of General Sherman's army.

One week ago to-day it was near Tusculum, Alabama, about 65 miles east of Corinth. It has, ere this, undoubtedly passed Decatur, and is within supporting distance of Rosecrans.

This army consists of the entire 15th army corps, the right wing of the 16th army corps, and the seventh division of the 17th army corps—making in all a considerable army of western veteran troops, under the command of a veteran general.

These troops, with those from the Potomac, already at Chattanooga, will swell Rosecrans' command to at least 100,000 men.

The national debt is great, "yet there are men who wish to continue the abolition party in power, and to let it run its ruinous race without objection!" says the economical and patriotic Milwaukee News.

Do you suppose that any other party could carry on this gigantic war without a national debt? Do you remember that James Buchanan ran the nation in debt $90,000,000 in a time of profound peace, and had nothing to show for the expenditure but guns, ships and munitions of war in the hands of the rebels? Would such a party conduct a war with so much prudence as to induce the people to trust them again?

Exciting News From the Army of the Potomac.

Instead of retreating to Richmond, as reported yesterday, it is now stated that Lee is attempting to turn the right of Gen. Meade's army, and get between it and Washington. After a fight between cavalry and infantry, on both sides, our forces were pushed back to Culpeper on Saturday. It is further stated that Gen. Meade has fallen back to the north bank of the Rappahannock, that Lee has crossed the Rapidan at Madison Court House, and that the rebel cavalry hold the gaps in the Bull Run mountains. It looks like a repetition of the movement upon Gen. Pope, and seems likely to bring on another battle near Manassas if the rebels have succeeded in turning Meade's right. News from that quarter will be looked for with great interest.

The Pending Elections.

Elections occur to-day in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa. Most of the remaining states which have not yet held their annual elections, do so on the 3d of November. The following figures as to the four middle states, which last year went for the copperheads, will be interesting at this time:

Administration.	Opposition.	Opp. May.
New York	255,997	306,430
New Jersey	40,771	61,807
Pennsylvania	215,616	210,340
Ohio	178,785	184,932
Total	736,743	771,428

News From Gen. Blunt.

Gen. Blunt has driven the rebels south who lately attacked him. Major Henning is safe, and has brought in the bodies of Major Curtis and Quartermaster Farr. The rebels killed fifty-five prisoners after they had surrendered. No names of the unfortunate men are given.

From Charleston.

The rebels begin to smell Greek fire in Charleston, houses having been set on fire which burnt two hours. By this time the "fire eaters" have had all they could digest. The rebels have tried their best to blow up the Ironsides, but did not quite succeed.

Habes Corpus in the South.

It is not known, we believe, that the privilege of habeas corpus has been suspended altogether in the Confederacy, for over twelve months. We have the highest judicial authority for stating this fact, although we cannot give any names. The suspension was made by a private order of Jeff Davis to the leading judicial officers, and never has been published. Probably not one man in fifty thousand in all rebellion is aware that for over twelve months the privilege of habeas corpus has not existed in the south at all. Our authority on this point is, we repeat, unquestionable.—Nashville Union.

Those who denounce Mr. Lincoln for suspending the writ, will never mention this fact. They never find fault with Jeff Davis. It is always the federal authorities that do wrong. Does not this peculiarity of the copperhead tribe stamp them as enemies of the federal government and friends of the confederates?

THE SENTIMENTS OF ALL TRUE MEN.—The venerable Josiah Quincy has written a letter to President Lincoln, to express his cordial approval of the President's Springfield letter, in which the President says that he shall not recall the emancipation order, relative to the liberation of all the slaves in the disloyal states. Mr. Quincy thus speaks of his personal experience in the early days of the republic, when slaveholders, or at least those who ruled the south, had a correct appreciation of the curse of human bondage.

Negro slavery and the possibility of emancipation have been subjects of my thought for more than seventy years; being first introduced to it by the debates in the convention of Massachusetts for adopting the constitution in 1788, which I attended. I had subsequently opportunities of knowing the views on that subject not only of such men as Hamilton, King, Jay and Pickers, but also of distinguished slaveholders—of both the Pinckneys, of William Smith, of South Carolina, and many others. With the first of these I had personal intercourse and acquaintance. I can truly say that I never knew the individual, slaveholder or non-slaveholder, who did not express a detestation of it, and the desire and disposition to get rid of it. The only difficulty in case of emancipation was, What shall we do with the slave? A satisfactory answer to both these questions has been, until now, beyond the reach and grasp of human wisdom.

What do honest democrats think of this from the rebel Maury's letter to the London Times:

"There is already a peace party at the north. All the embarrassments with which that party can surround Mr. Lincoln, and all the difficulties that it can throw in the way of the war party in the north, operate directly as so much aid and comfort to the south."

And what of this from the Richmond Enquirer:

"The democratic party of the north is of the utmost importance to us (the rebels) to aid in stimulating disaffection among the Yankees against their own government, and in demoralizing and disintegrating society in that God-abandoned land."

Prospective Retirement of Chief Justice Taney.

Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Times.

It is thought here in professional circles that Chief Justice Taney's protracted hold on the Bench of the Supreme Court of the United States will be unloosed before the spring of 1864. A desire is universally expressed among lawyers and politicians that his successor in office may be a statesman whose history gives the soundest guarantees of anti-slavery sentiment, and whose eminence as a lawyer and Senator has only been surpassed by the splendor with which he has administered the finances of the United States during the great rebellion.

"STRICT TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY."—Col. Golding, candidate for representative in Licking county, Ohio, says that he was taught to believe that the Democratic Union meant "stick to the democratic party." But when he got into the army, was taken prisoner, and marched 400 miles in the hot sun, and finally lodged in Libby Prison, where he was fed on rotten meat and taunted as a renegade democrat, because he deserted his party to fight his brother democrats of the south, he fully learned that the Democratic Union meant something else besides stick to the democratic party!

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

At the Union meeting held in this city last evening, Senator T. O. Howe gave an able and eloquent argument on the questions of the day, showing the absurdity of the idea that President Lincoln was, or could be, a tyrant, defending the acts of his administration, and reviewing the infamous course of Vallandigham, as warmly endorsed by the Palmer and Ryan democrats of this state, from the time he introduced a resolution in congress, in 1861, recognizing the right of secession and proposing to amend the constitution, till the present. He made a cogent appeal for the support of the Union ticket by loyal men, commissions have been issued to the 3d regiment, state militia: W. Augustus Ray, as colonel; S. B. Boynton, lieutenant colonel; S. W. Hedrick, major. Capt. Geo. D. Rogers is major of the 25th regiment; Capt. Payne, major last cavalry; J. R. Davis has been commissioned captain of battery C, heavy artillery; and Henry W. Peck, captain of battery D, heavy artillery. These two batteries have just been raised and will soon leave for the field. Capt. R. M. Strong, as major of the 19th regiment; Asst. Surgeon E. M. Rogers as surgeon of the 12th regiment.

Gen. McClellan has written a letter to Hon. Chas. J. Biddle, of New Jersey, requesting him to deny the statement in the Philadelphia Press and other newspapers, that if he voted and spoke in the Pennsylvania political campaign, it would be in favor of Gov. Curtin. He says: "That after a full conversation with Judge Woodward, he finds that their views agree, and he regards his station as governor of Pennsylvania called for by the interests of the nation; and would, if it was in his power, give to Judge Woodward his voice and his vote."

Special to the Chicago Tribune.—Military matters bid fair to become interesting. Bragg's advance is reported crossing the Kawara in considerable force. Our cavalry have fallen back from Calhoun to the Sweet Water, and the rebels entered Athens this morning on the east.

Something decisive is expected. Our advance skirmished yesterday with Jones near the Yazoo. The rebels fell back from Blue Springs to Carter on the Waxamung river, where they are entrenched. The situation we cannot give, but it is confidently believed that the rebels will not again be permitted to escape them. Their original number, five thousand, has been increased by reinforcements to about eight thousand.

The Boston Herald has a letter from the front of Charleston, Oct. 3, which says: Last evening, Gen. Gilmore sent one of his Greek fire shells into Charleston, which set fire to some buildings. The fire burnt over two hours. There will be warm work here before this reaches you, if nothing interferes in the meantime.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

The following special relative to Rosecrans' army appears under a Washington date: Things are unchanged, with the exception that the enemy have removed their artillery from Lookout Mountain, where they had about ten pieces in position, and appear to have somewhat withdrawn their forces. It is supposed they will concentrate their artillery on Mission Ridge. Some of the troops are in heavy and all seem to carry well. They hold both Lookout Mountain and Mission Ridge from which they threw shells on the 4th and 5th inst. On the latter day 50 shells were thrown by the enemy. They have inflicted no damage beyond wounding three men, and killing one horse. We have several lines of intrenchments, and extensive earthworks are still going on. The plan of the enemy appears to be not to make an attack in front, but to compel us to abandon Chattanooga by simply holding us in our present position with their army in our front, annoying us with their artillery, and breaking our lines of communication by cavalry raids in our rear. A general order, issued on the 8th, announces Major General Reynolds as chief of staff, in place of Gen. Garfield, who vacates his position to assume his seat in congress. All divisions of the army will be consolidated into six, to form the 14th and 4th corps, with Generals Thomas and Granger as commanders. Those divisions now held by Generals Buell, Bayard, Davis and Rosecrans, and those under the latter by Generals Wood, Sheridan and Palmer. General Brannan will be chief of artillery.

Gen. Rosecrans denies officially to have brought any charges against Gen. McCook and Crittenden. It is generally believed these officers will show a much better record than reports in regard to them warrant. With the assistance of reinforcements already arrived, movements will soon be made, it is hoped, which will drive the enemy from our front. The army is still well supplied with everything but clothing and blankets, the want of which, in unusually cold weather, causes considerable suffering. All the wounded able to bear removal have been sent north. The casualties in the late battles will not be less than 15,000.

On Thursday the rebels from the opposite side of the river fired into our wagons and ambulances, passing over the valley road, wounding two men and killing and wounding several mules. They seem designed on embarrassing our trains in every possible way.

Wheeler's forces, after burning a portion of Shelbyville, were attacked by Col. Crook not far from that place, Wednesday. We killed 120 of the enemy, took 800 prisoners and three pieces of artillery. The rebels were pursued by our forces in the direction of Fayetteville, were overtaken and 300 more prisoners lost by them. At last accounts they were making their way into the interior, closely pursued by our cavalry, which is regarded as sufficient to take care of them. Roddy has crossed the Tennessee with 1,000 men. He passed through Lenoirville, on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, Thursday, and made off in the direction of Winchester. Friday night they drove down the river to Tunnell, this side of Cowan. Some damage was done by throwing down stones, but to no great extent, and the obstructions have been removed. Gen. Hooker sent a force last night to that point, but the rebels did not venture an attack.

There seems to be good reasons for believing the rebels had a fight among themselves last Monday, in which 500 or 600 were killed and wounded. Deserters from the statement, but differ as to the cause and force engaged. One reason is that the Georgia troops refused to cross the Chickamauga, and Withers' division was sent to compel them. The other Tennessee troops had refused to obey orders and Longstreet's forces were sent against them. The line of battle and dash of guns could be distinctly seen from the mountain tops. This occurred at the time of their cannonading, Monday, by which we conclude was the nature of their trouble.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. Times special.—Early on Saturday a brigade of cavalry belonging to Kilpatrick's division, attempted a reconnaissance on the south side of Robertson's river. They were attacked by a large force of rebel cavalry, amply supported by infantry and artillery under command of Stuart in person. The infantry force was one of Ewell's divisions, and numbered about 8,000 men. A brisk fight ensued, lasting about an hour, when our cavalry were compelled to fall back on their infantry supports, three miles from Culpeper. At this place another conflict ensued, in which our infantry supports were worsted and compelled to retire, the rebels capturing about 100 of the 12th New York. Our cavalry again formed into line and made a splendid charge, and recaptured all the prisoners taken, except 15 or 20. Rebel reinforcements coming to their assistance, our forces pushed back to Culpeper, skirmishing all the way.

Heavy firing this afternoon indicated that the engagement had been renewed. Later intelligence from the front says our forces have evacuated Culpeper. Such stores as could not be conveniently carried were burned. Their value, however, is trifling. It is reported that the whole rebel army has crossed the Rapidan; and further, that General Meade has fallen back to the north bank of the Rappahannock. Prisoners captured on Saturday state that Longstreet's corps had returned from the southwest. This, however, is doubted. The rebels commenced to cross the Rapidan, Thursday, moving in the direction of Madison Court House, with the evident intention of turning General Meade's right wing. Heavy cavalry reinforcements have been sent to the front. It is reported that rebel cavalry hold the gaps in the Bull Run Mountains. A large cavalry force sent from here yesterday, however, will speedily dislodge them. The rebel force holding the gaps supposed to be White's and Mosby's men.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12. Secretary Chase arrived this afternoon and was received at the depot by a large crowd, and escorted to the Burnett House, where he made a short speech.

Great interest is felt in the election which comes off to-morrow. Business in this city will be partially suspended.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12. After the adjournment the delegates were notified that a soldiers' aid society was meeting in the same house, and were asked to contribute for their benefit. The treasurer of the society passed the plate and received over six dollars.

REMARKS OF A COMING REVOLUTION IN IRELAND.—A piece of news has just arrived from England, which does not surprise us, and which we should not be sorry to see confirmed. It is published by the International, a French journal appearing in London, and is to the effect that a conspiracy is now organizing in Ireland, against the English domination of course. The conspirators, who called themselves "Fenians" (!) and "Sons of St. Patrick," are said to be eighty thousand in number, all armed, and only awaiting an opportunity to shake off the Saxon yoke, and proclaim the independence of Ireland.

If the English government were engaged in a war with France, which is not probable, or with the United States, which is less probable, they would at once raise the standard of their country, and would be aided by their countrymen who have emigrated to America. The Irish would like to have France on their side; but they have resolved to act without her. The people in all the countries long for deliverance, and do not make any secret of their hopes. We indulge no illusions as to the importance of this news. Ireland has for centuries groined under English tyranny, and it is not astonishing that she should always long for freedom; but that happy day is not so near, perhaps, as we could wish. When it comes we shall hail it with joy.—Gazette de France, Sept. 15th.
